

Mujeeb Jaihoon

Writer

Mujeeb Jaihoon is an acclaimed Indian author known for his profound exploration of mystic themes that transcend cultural and linguistic boundaries. His books have been translated into multiple languages, including French, Italian, Arabic, Urdu, Tamil, and Malayalam, allowing readers across the globe to engage with his unique perspective on spirituality and mysticism.

Notable Works & Recognition

- The Cool Breeze from Hind
Dubbed as a spiritual revival of roots and resistance, Jaihoon's novel unfolds as a mystical journey of twists and turns.
- Slogans of the Sage
Awarded the prestigious Sree Narayana Guru Sreshtha Award in 2022, this book is collection of quotations by and about Sayyid Shihab, South India's celebrated philanthropist and statesman.
- Other Major Works
 - The Maverick Dervish
 - Mantra of the Oppressed
 - Mission Nizamuddin – the world's first Twitter-based travelogue.
 - The Alchemy of Affinity
 - Mothers & Martyrs

Global Impact & Media Features

Jaihoon's work has captured attention worldwide, with media coverage in Arabic, Kyrgyz, and Indian publications. His books have received commendations from world leaders, statesmen, and thought influencers, affirming his position as an impactful voice in mystic literature.

For more insights, visit his blog at www.jaihoon.com or social media @mujeebjaihoon